ARTICLE PREPARATION CHECKLIST:
A Reference Guide for Authors

AIP Publishing reserves the right to request a replacement file if the article does not meet the requirements listed below. Requesting replacements will hold up the production of your volume.

DO	DON'T
✓ Prepare your article using our AIP Conference Proceedings 8.5 x 11 inch single column template.	✗ Include one-page papers — they are not allowed.
✓ Use Times New Roman font. The point size will vary by section.	✗ Add page numbers or headers/footers.
✓ Make sure that all author affiliation associations are correct. This means author vs. affiliation and author vs. email address. If there is only one affiliation for all authors, association is not needed.	✗ Use copyrighted material without permission. If you have included previously published figures in your article, you must provide written approval from the copyright holder to re-use the figure. Also, include the appropriate credit line associated with the figure in the caption.
✓ Make sure that figures, images, and tables appear within the text and do not follow the Reference section.	✗ Alter the margins of our templates.
✓ Embed all fonts into your article PDF.
✓ Make sure that all images and tables fall within the margins of the template.
✓ Check all figures and images carefully to ensure that they are complete and that no parts are missing or cut off.
✓ Use clear, legible graphics and diagrams. The font, formulas, tables, and figures should be clear and easy to read.
✓ Number all tables, figures, and formulas sequentially.
✓ Place all captions or other information associated with a table, image, or figure on the same page as that table, image, or figure.
